GAME OUT ON TOP.

ing become known not very long after the closing of the polls that the Republicans had achieved a great victory. The Democrats who were on hand melted like snow under the fire of the returns, that from start to finish were favorable to the Republican candidates. Clerk Thoner gave up after about one third of the precincts in the city had been reported, but the McNichol men held on and claimed that when all the votes were counted their man would come under the wire a winner—by a small majority—but a winner just the same. From the start it was seen that Mayor Caldwell was going to lead his ticket, his vote being larger than his fellow candidates in every ward of the city with the exception of the Eighth, where popular Charley Dannenberg rolled up a majority of 503.

The first precinct that reported its returns was the first in the Fifth ward, about 8:30 p. m. It is one of the lightest voting places in the city, and could hardly be termed an index of what the balance of the ward or city would do. Though Caldwell carried it by seventeen votes McNichol took it by three, and Bennett men thought matters looked bad for their favorite. In the next half hour only three precincis, from as many wards, reported, and from then on it began to be seen that the Republicans had their opponents by the hip, and predictions were made that the G. O. P. would sweep the city almost.

At 11 o'clock every precinct excepting one in the Eighth and one in the First ward had reported. At 11:20 the Eighth was completed and the announcement that Dannenberg had carried it by over 503 aroused greatenthiciasm among the crowd present, most of whom were Republicans. Bennett's 303 in the Lighth, too, made it certain that he had beaten McNichol and then there was more enthusiasm.

The result of the day's work, by

MAUDE BRANSCOMBE,

A Well Known Actress, Appears as Plaintiff in a London Court. LONDON, Jan. 24.-Maude Branscombe, the actrees, who a dozen years ago was well known throughout the United States, more on account of fine photographs which were taken of herself than because of her artistic ability, was at Bow street police court this afternoon in support of a summons which she had previously taken out against Alexander Hamilton Gunn, described as a "company promoter," and who is said to be known in Canada. Miss Branscombe charged Mr. Gunn with using threats toward her, and it has been stated that he has gone so far as to beat her. She said that her irregular association with Mr. Gunn had existed for four years, during which she had been more than friend to him and helped him in his company promoting, acting as his secretary. But, she said, owing to his unbearable violence, she had decided to break off, this association and her decision led to the threats referred to. The defense of Mr. Gunn was that the charges were an attempt to blackmail him.
